
CEAB Workshop

August 9, 2007

WELCOME

John Mengacci

Welcome

- Purpose
 - To educate Board, policy makers and public on recent electric energy policy developments that will affect and inform Connecticut's energy planning decisions moving forward
 - Transmission planning and FERC Order 890
 - ISO Scenario Analysis initiative and results
- Goal
 - Determine relationship between these new policy developments and CEAB's enhanced electric system planning tasks, including, but not limited to:
 - Procurement planning responsibilities
 - Integrating RGGI and alternative fuels
 - Adopting exemption criteria for RFP for alternatives process

Agenda

- 12:30- 12:40 Introductory Remarks
John Mengacci, CEAB Chairman
- 12:40 – 1:10 System Planning in NE: Overview
Stephen Rourke, VP System Planning, ISO New England
- 1:10 – 2:30 Transmission Planning Straw man
Stephen Rourke, VP System Planning, ISO New England
- 2:30 – 3:00 Refreshment Break - LOB Atrium
- 3:00 – 3:10 ISO Scenario Analysis: CT Context
Don Downes, CT DPUC Chairman
- 3:10 – 4:40 ISO Scenario Analysis
Stephen Whitley, Senior VP/COO, ISO New England
- 4:30 Adjourn

Housekeeping Items

- Emergency exits
- Cell phones and pagers – please set to “off” or “vibrate” mode
- Ask that Board panel hold questions, if possible, until designated Q&A segments
- All materials presented today will be posted on CEAB’s website (www.ctenergy.org) Friday morning